7:30 - 9:00 AM

Pat Moulton-Powden

Appointed by Governor Shumlin to the position of Deputy Secretary of the Agency of Commerce and Community Development in 2010, Moulton-Powden has a diverse background in state issues. In the past she has worked in economic development and as Commissioner of the Department of Labor overseeing unemployment insurance and worker's compensation.

David Robinson

For the past 27 years Robinson has been with the USDA and is currently the Business Program Director for USDA Rural Development for Vermont and New Hampshire. He oversees financial and technical assistance programs to develop and boost rural businesses focusing on manufacturing and renewable energy.

Jo Bradley

As the Chief Executive Officer of the Vermont Economic Development Authority since 1997, Bradley has much experience from similar positions such as Deputy Secretary at the VT Agency of Commerce and Community Development, Commercial Load Officer at the Vermont Economic Development Authority, and VP at Solomon Brothers, Inc. in Boston.

Christopher D'Elia

Former Commissioner of Economic Development for the State of Vermont, he is now the President of the Vermont Bankers Association. The Association's mission is to promote an environment that ferments a strong banking community, that in turn promotes the Vermont economy in economic development, construction, and real estate.
